What's New at IMCN

Our next event is a Grant Writing Workshop focused on the fundamentals of grant writing, effective writing, structure content for clarity and impact

- September 12, 2025 from 8:30 am – 1:00 pm, at Wanuskewin, exclusive to our members – breakfast, lunch and parking are provided

Fall & Winter Build Your Business Workshops

We're excited to host two upcoming workshops focused on enhancing Indigenous business participation across key sectors:

- October 2025: Focused sessions on Build Your Business: Procurement Series
- February 2026: A follow-up session on Build Your Business: Workforce Development Series

Each session is from 10 AM – 2 PM with lunch provided. Stay tuned for finalized agendas and guest speaker announcements!

Winter Surety Bond Workshop

November 2025 - This workshop will provide foundational understanding of what surety bonds are, how they work, how to complete, and why they are essential in the industrial sectors.

Advocating for a Provincial Indigenous Procurement Policy

IMCN has completed a document titled "Advocating for a Provincial Indigenous Procurement Policy".

This living document highlights the history of procurement, benefits to implement a policy, policy recommendations, calls to action.

We have engaged stakeholders within the Government to gain momentum for adoption.

Indigenous Economic Impact Analysis

We're progressing in our effort to undertake an Indigenous Economic Impact Analysis. This analysis will evaluate the direct, indirect, and induced economic impact of Indigenous participation in the industrial industry. Outcomes will inform policy, investment, and partnership strategies, and will be shared with stakeholders across Canada.

Request for Proposals will be issued for this project in the near future. Stay tuned!
